

By train

You can get to Świnoujście by train from two directions. The Polish Railway Station is located in the right-bank part of the city, on the Isle of Wolin. Having got out of the train, you need to take a ferry to get to the city centre in the Isle of Usedom. The ferry service, available right next to the railway station, is free.

The Świnoujście Railway Station	1 Dworcowa Street 72-600 Świnoujście rozklad-pkp
---------------------------------	--

ticket office (near the ferry - Uznam Island)	opening hours: 7.10 - 18.40
Ph. +48 665 910 527	breaks: 10.00 - 10.15 14.00 - 14.15

You can also get to the centre of Świnoujście from the German side of the border. The German UBB railway station is located at 11, Listopada Street. The UBB services provide a fast and convenient connection from Świnoujście, to a number of German cities, including holiday resorts in the Isle of Usedom, such as Ahlbeck, Heringsdorf and Bansin, Wolgast and Stralsund, and if you change trains - also to Berlin and other major cities.

The Usedom Rail Services	www
--------------------------	---------------------